

Dear Reader,

Welcome to the 2nd newsletter of the Interreg IVC CesR project Cooperatives of Employment and Services in Rural areas.

In this current issue of the CESR newsletter we will focus on three specific events; the presentation of the CesR project to the members of the Committee of the Regions in early March; an example of a "Regional Workgroup Meeting" in Cork County (Ireland) and the study trip of all CesR partners in Auvergne (France) in April.

Another feature is the concise presentation of an interesting business model in Poland: the Chata Magoda accommodation, with in-house services provided by both the owners and other local entrepreneurs that collaborate with the owners.

(More information on this project on www.cesr-project.eu)

CesR area visit to Auvergne (France)

The partners of the CesR project met in the Auvergne region from 16th to 18th April 2013 for an area visit organised by the Regional Tourism Development Board of Auvergne (CRDTA). The objective of this trip for the 19 participants was to deepen their knowledge of Auvergne examples identified by the CRDTA in terms of services for tourist accommodation clients on one side, and job-sharing on the other [...]

» MORE

Chata Magoda in the Bieszczady Mountains (Poland) – an example of holiday home and a guesthouse with in-house services for tourists

CesR partners intend to create favourable conditions for the development of the neglected market of tourist services in self-catering holiday homes. Various examples from many [...]

» MORE

A Regional Workgroup Meeting held in Cork, Ireland

The initial meeting of the Irish CesR Regional Workgroup meeting was held in Cork County Council

Head Quarters. County Hall, Cork, Ireland on 28th February

2013.

17 Stakeholders attended this meeting, representing the following Organisations [\[...\]](#)

» MORE

CesR presented to members of the Committee of the Regions in Dublin

On 28th February and 1st March 2013, a conference for the Regions Committee was held in Dublin on the subject of new skills and new jobs (“Europe 2020 Conference – Agenda for new skills and jobs”). This theme is in fact one of the 7 priority themes of the Europe 2020 strategy adopted by the European Union.

At the request of the Regions Committee, the CesR project was [\[...\]](#)

» MORE

Unsubscribe